AN OPPORTUNITY!

At the request of a number of our patrons, we have concluded to offer the services of our artist, Mr. W. Y. Itow, as a practical instructor in Oil Painting and Water Coloring, free of charge.

Mr. Itow has been in our employ for the past two years and we feel confident that, by practical demonstration, he can teach his pupil just what he wants to know in the matter of handling colors, etc., without the tiresome course usually adopted by instructors.

MAYPOLE CONCERT.

For the Organ Fund of New Central Union Church.

Y. M. C. A. hall was well filled last night for the Mayday entertainment given by Oahu College and Punahou Preparatory School. Governor Clegg, Premier Parker, Judge Dole, Hon. C. R. Bishop and many other prominent persons were present.

Miss Louise F. Dale, instructor in music to the college, directed the concert. The opening piece was,
"O hush thee, my babe," by Sullivan, sung by the college chorus.
Then came the cantata "Merry May," words by E. Oxenford, music by H. E. Warner, performed by the preparatory school. Misses Neil and Hay-selden and others took the solos effectively. The girls were in better voice and training than the boys, the latter being often quite weak in chorals. Twelve girls coached by Miss May Atherton did the Maypole dance attractively.
Miss Wing played piano accompaniments while Miss Dale was leading the choruses.

Miss Glade and Mr. Ernest Lyman sang Gounod's "Breezes of the Night" in good style and were recalled. Central Union Church choir sang "One Morning Sweet in May" in a tuneful way but some thought too fast. Miss Clara Glade gave the "Spring Song" by F. Lynes sweetly, accompanied by Miss McGrew on the violin and Miss Glade on the piano.
An enthusiastic recall rewarded the singer and players.

Then came a great hit. "We meet again to-night boys," was sung by the Oahu College glee club, led by Prof. J. Q. Wood. It was executed in such delightful chords that a rousing encore brought the young men back on the platform. They gave the Jubilee Singers' song, "Who built de ark?" in rattling style, and, being compelled to come again, gave a third selection which only compelled a fourth. Nothing but the hands of the clock restrained the audience from demanding still more to appease its appetite for minstrelsy.
A feature of the club's singing was a vocal accompaniment resembling organ tones made by several voices.

Miss Charlotte Hall and A. F.
Judd, Jr., gave "The Quaker Courtship" with such good acting that they had to give a repetition. The entertainment closed with the song and chorus, "Rest thee on this mossy pillow,"—Smart, by the college girls' glee club, who rendered the music capitally.

The concert was for the benefit of the fund to obtain an organ for the new edifice of Central Union Church.
Good progress is being made on the building. The rafters and studding, with much of the lathing, in the main part are in place, while the Sunday school and lecture room division is fast approaching a finished state. It makes a handsome and commodious meeting place for both congregation and school. The colored glass for the building is expected shortly from Chicago, so that the opening of the lecture room for its purposes as well as a temporary place for all Sunday services, is now only a matter of a few weeks.

FOREIGN BREVITIES.

The Wyoming captive stockmen were safely landed by troops in Fort Russell. They have the ablest lawyers hired to prevent their being returned to Johnson county.

Thomas B. Knaggs has petitioned the Circuit Court in Indianapolis to have his surname changed to West.
His friends have made his life a burden by calling him "Jaggs," "Kaggs," "Snaggs," and even
"Raggs."

John Good threatens to break loose from his contract with the cordage trust of the United States, which pays him $200,000 to keep his cordage works shut down. The trust is also said to have held an option for $7,000,000 on his plant.

Many women and children were trampled down, and it is feared some fatally injured, in a panic in a Catholic church at Josephstadt, Austria, caused by the veil of a new commu-nicant taking fire.

An article in the North German Gazette, which has caused a sensation, charged Austria with attempting to make a profit out of the conversion of the currency at the expense of her creditors.

La France says the people of Paris demand that martial law be declared, that every suspected person be arrested, and that the centers of agitation be unrelentingly watched by the police.

A railway accident at Bathurst, Australia, April 26, caused death to nine persons and injuries to twelve.

The Victoria, Australia, Cabinet has been reconstructed. General Graham Berry takes the portfolio of the Treasury, and Mr. Zeal takes the Postmaster-Generalship, in place of J. Gavan Duffy, resigned.

Henri Duveyrier, the African explorer, committed suicide at Nerves, France.

The Government of Brazil has sent 5000 troops to suppress the revolt in the State of Matto Grosso.

There was a free fight at a woman's suffrage meeting presided over by Lady Florence Dixie in London. The meeting was called to support Sir Albert Rollit's bill. A noisy minority after smashing the reporters' table and platform rails placed their own leader in the chair and carried a resolution declaring Sir Albert's partial measure unworthy of support and that a full female franchise ought to be given.

Phillip C. Hanna, U. S. Consul to La Guayra, Venezuela, was fired at by a policeman in the street and narrowly escaped being hit. Mr. Hanna pounced upon the policeman, demanded what the shot meant. When the policeman saw whom he had fired at he was greatly disconcerted and begged for mercy. On the following day the American Consulate was besieged by officials anxious to apologize for the unfortunate incident.

Mr. Hanna assured them that he looked upon the affair as a mistake, and bore no ill will toward the policeman.

A traveling man who chanced to be in the store of E. V. Wood, at McKees Rocks, Pa., says while he was waiting to see Mr. Wood, a little girl came in with an empty bottle labeled Chamberlain's Pain Balm and said: "Mamma wants another bottle of that medicine; she says it is the best medicine for rheumatism she ever used." 50 cent bottles for sale by all dealers. Benson, Smith & Co.,
